

SCOUT EXPERIMENTATION

Sponsors: Office of Naval Research (ONR)

Focus: SCOUT seeks to “provide deeper value-added analysis of discovered warfighter capabilities of interest” by building, highlighting, and streamlining the plan to fielding. This can be accomplished working with leadership, resource sponsors, and the acquisition community for transition opportunities.

Type of Event: Fleet Exercise

Location: TBD. Fleet assets are determined by individual proposals and needs.

Entry Criteria: All TRL are welcome to apply as the focus is more on relevancy. Higher TRL may progress more rapidly.

Challenges: Ensure timely submission, with questions due by 3 December 2021. Answers will be provided by 17 December 2021 on SAM.gov. Proposal submissions due by 14 January 2022.

When?

SCOUT is an annual event and the next is slated for July 2022.
